THE ART OF STORY-DANCE

'Great Stories Inspire change'. Wakakirri is a National Story-Dance Festival for schools that develops student engagement and wellbeing through participation in the Performing Arts

Schools participate by creating Story-Dances that they perform at live theatres in cities and selected regional areas around Australia. Schools who cannot attend a live event can participate via Wakakirri Video.

Each year schools create and perform Story-Dances for Wakakirri that reflect students' ideas and aspirations. Schools will explore themes and concepts that address various topics such as: environmental, social, cultural, health, historical, entertainment & stories about reconciliation are all popular themes.

Wakakirri is open to all types of Primary & Secondary schools, Dance Studios and Community Groups.

HISTORY

ARTS EDUCATION AT ITS BEST!

Australia's largest performing arts event for schools!

Founded in 1992 from a government youth enterprise business scheme by school teacher Matthew Samuel and production manager Adam Loxley who wanted to expose more young people to the positive outcomes created by participation in the Performing Arts.

Wakakirri means 'to dance' according to the Wangaaypuwan people from Cobar, NSW. Wakakirri chose the name to give the event a uniquely Australian feel.

"Empowering students to become changemakers!"

Today Wakakirri is Australia's largest performing arts event for schools.

- The Wakakirri Primary School Challenge became a national event in 1998.
- The 'not-for-profit' Wakakirri Association Inc. was established in 2005.
- In 2013 the Victorian Wakakirri Secondary School Challenge was created with the support of the Victorian Government in response to the demise of the High School Rock Eisteddfod.

OVERVIEW

WHAT IS A STORY-DANCE?

A Wakakirri Story Dance is a 3-7 minute student performance utilising a combination of dancing, creative movement and acting to pre-recorded music. Schools can tell any story that has a clear progression using costumes, sets, props, lighting, projection, hair & make-up to enhance their performance and send that message!

Participating schools create a Story-Dance to perform in a professional theatre to audiences that consist of families, friends, and the wider community. The show is also attended by the National Ambassadors who will award schools for their creativity in different categories. Schools who cannot attend a live performance can send their entry in via video.

Wakakirri is open to all schools (public and private), dance studios and community groups. Students with any level of experience can participate. An importance is placed on creative movement and drama rather than technical dance. Emphasis is also placed on inventive storytelling and sustainability, not expensive and extravagant productions. Wakakirri encourages schools to minimise their footprint when creating productions with special recognition to schools that excel in this area.

A unique sense of camaraderie develops among the students, as participants spend Show Day rehearsing and engaging with other schools at the student function with our Ambassadors and perform live on stage. Each production is filmed for our online showcase.

Wakakirri Live: $39.00 per student and includes certificates and a digital copy of your school's performance. Additional costs include props, costumes and transport to the theatre.

FUNDING APPLICATION

Alkira Secondary College

"We are a school that has been struggling for years to build up their performing arts exposure. We have have hard working teachers and students but funding has been hard. A lot of our students come from families that are struggling financially and would benefit with a helping hand for the entrance fee.

After COVID restrictions ruined us from performing for the last couple of years, the students need something to grab them back into the world of performance. Wakakirri would be a great opportunity for them to express their stories and be embraced back into that world."

NATIONAL AWARDS & FESTIVAL MOTIF

Schools can choose to tell any story that they wish. Schools' performances are often inspired by the Wakakirri ethos 'great stories inspire change' and the annual festival motif (in 2025 the motif is MIND OVER MATTER: TALES OF INNER STRENGTH).

Wakakirri acknowledges schools who exemplify the Wakakirri ethos 'Great Stories Inspire Change' (schools efforts in raising awareness, community building and excellence in performing arts). Each year, outstanding performances that embody the values of the Wakakirri ethos are recognised through the selection of national winners.

NORTHERN COLLEGE OF THE ARTS TECHNOLOGY Don't Give Up

OUR LADY OF THE SACRED HEART The Power of One Voice

Told through the story of Malala, all girls deserve to be educated. She would not be silenced; her resilient spirit enabled her to fight oppression and inspire others to fight for equality of education.

CASE STUDY

25 YEARS OF WAKAKIRRI AT STRATHFIELD NORTH PUBLIC SCHOOL

“Our experience with Wakakirri over the past 25 years has been deeply enriching and transformative for the school community. Strathfield North Public School is committed to creating inclusive and engaging learning environments that foster the development of the whole child, as outlined in our strategic improvement plan.

Through Wakakirri, we provide our students with an extraordinary platform to creatively express their ideas and engage in meaningful storytelling through dance. This experience aligns closely with our focus on student voice, well-being, and community engagement. Wakakirri is an essential part of our extra-curricular offerings that helps to promote student well-being, resilience, and collaboration. The program allows students to work together on a shared goal, developing confidence, teamwork, and communication skills.

Importantly, it also helps strengthen connections across generations, as many of our Wakakirri staff team have in fact been Wakakirri performers, some in the same school. This continuity builds a rich legacy of participation, fostering a sense of pride and belonging for our students and their families. It creates an environment where students feel valued and supported by their peers, teachers, and the wider community.

Participation in Wakakirri is not only about artistic expression but also about nurturing a sense of social responsibility. Our Story-Dances often focus on issues that are relevant to our students and their communities, sparking conversations about positive social change. By exploring themes such as diversity, sustainability, and kindness through their performances, students develop empathy and a deeper understanding of their role in shaping the future.

Additionally, our commitment to Wakakirri and other extra-curricular programs contributes significantly to our outstanding attendance rates. Our school and community highly value the rich, diverse and inclusive creative and performing arts programs at the school.

As noted in our strategic goals, attendance is a key priority at Strathfield North Public School, and programs like Wakakirri are instrumental in keeping students engaged and excited about school. The high level of student involvement and the enthusiasm generated by Wakakirri contribute to our position as the school with the highest attendance rate in our network, enhancing student engagement and learning outcomes”.
